IN LOVING MEMORY OF

DEEPA

This information is respectfully prepared in remembrance of Deepa, whose life and values will always be cherished.

Deepa was a second-year B.Com student at Alagappa Arts College, with a strong ambition to become an IAS officer. She was known for her determination, discipline and clarity of purpose.

On February 6, she met with a tragic accident in the Pudukkottai area, Karaikudi, when a lorry struck her while riding her two-wheeler. Despite medical efforts, she was declared brain-dead on February 14.

Deepa had earlier expressed her wish to donate her organs and had sought her mother's consent. Honouring her noble desire, her parents agreed to organ donation, giving new life to others amid their profound grief.
